Data protection principles

a) We fairly and lawfully process personal data in a transparent way

Chiltern Arts will only collect data where lawful and where it is necessary for the legitimate purposes of the charity.

- A member's name and contact details will be collected when they first join and will be used to contact the member regarding membership administration and activities. Other data may also subsequently be collected in relation to their membership, including payment history. Where possible Chiltern Arts will anonymise this data.
  - Lawful basis for processing this data: Contract (the collection and use of data is fair and reasonable in relation to Chiltern Arts completing tasks expected as part of the individual's membership).
- The name and contact details of volunteers, employees and contractors will be collected when they take up a position and will be used to contact them regarding administration related to their role.

Further information, including personal financial information and criminal records information may also be collected in specific circumstances where lawful and necessary (in order to process payment to the person or in order to carry out a DBS check).

- Lawful basis for processing this data: Contract (the collection and use of data is fair and reasonable in relation to Chiltern Arts completing tasks expected as part of working with the individuals),
- An individual's name and contact details will be collected when they make a booking for an event. This will be used to contact them about their booking and to allow them entry to the event.
  - Lawful basis for processing this data: Contract (the collection and use of data is fair and reasonable in relation to Chiltern Arts completing tasks expected as part of the booking),

- An individual's name, contact details and other details may be collected at any time (including when booking tickets or at an event), with their consent, in order for Chiltern Arts to communicate with them about and promote activities. See 'How we get consent' below.
  - Lawful basis for processing this data: Consent (see 'How we get consent')
- Pseudonymous or anonymous data (including behavioural, technological and geographical/regional) on an individual may be collected via tracking 'cookies' when they access our website or interact with our emails, in order for us to monitor and improve our effectiveness on these channels. See 'Cookies on the Chiltern Arts website' below.
  - Lawful basis for processing this data: Consent (see 'How we get consent')

b) We only collect and use personal data for specific, explicit and legitimate purposes and will only use the data for those specified purposes.

When collecting data, Chiltern Arts will always provide a clear and specific privacy statement explaining to the subject why the data is required and what it will be used for.

c) We ensure any data collected is relevant and not excessive

Chiltern Arts will not collect or store more data than the minimum information required for its intended purpose.

e.g. we need to collect telephone numbers from members in order to be able to contact them about group administration, but data on their marital status or sexuality will not be collected, since it is unnecessary and excessive for the purposes of Chiltern Arts administration.

d) We ensure data is accurate and up-to-date

Chiltern Arts will ask members, volunteers and staff to check and update their data on an annual basis. Any individual will be able to update their data at any point by contacting the Data Protection Officer.

e) We ensure data is not kept longer than necessary

Chiltern Arts will keep records for no longer than is necessary in order to meet the intended use for which it was gathered (unless there is a legal requirement to keep records).

The storage and intended use of data will be reviewed in line with Chiltern Arts data retention policy. When the intended use is no longer applicable (e.g. contact details for a member who has left Chiltern Arts), the data will be deleted within a reasonable period.

f) We keep personal data secure

Chiltern Arts will ensure that data held by us is kept secure.

- Electronically-held data will be held within a password-protected and secure environment.

- Passwords for electronic data files will be re-set each time an individual with data access leaves their role/position.
- Physically-held data (e.g. membership forms or email sign-up sheets) will be stored on a locked cupboard.
- Keys for locks securing physical data files should be collected by the Data Protection Officer from any individual with access if they leave their role/position. The codes on combination locks should be changed each time an individual with data access leaves their role/position.
- Access to data will only be given to relevant trustees/members/contractors where it is clearly necessary for the running of the group. The Data Protection Officer will decide in what situations this is applicable and will keep a master list of who has access to data.

g) Transfer to countries outside the EEA

Chiltern Arts will not transfer data to countries outside the European Economic Area (EEA), unless the country has adequate protection for the individual's data privacy rights.

Individual Rights

When Chiltern Arts collects, holds and uses an individual's personal data, that individual has the following rights over that data. Chiltern Arts will ensure its data processes comply with those rights and will make all reasonable efforts to fulfil requests from an individual in relation to those rights.

Individual's rights

- Right to be informed: whenever Chiltern Arts collects data it will provide a clear and specific privacy statement explaining why it is being collected and how it will be used.
- Right of access: individuals can request to see the data Chiltern Arts holds on them and confirmation of how it is being used. Requests should be made in writing to the Data Protection Officer and will be complied with free of charge and within one month. Where requests are complex or numerous this may be extended to two months.
- Right to rectification: individuals can request that their data be updated where it is inaccurate or incomplete. Chiltern Arts will request that members, employees and contractors check and update their data on an annual basis. Any requests for data to be updated will be processed within one month.
- Right to object: individuals can object to their data being used for a particular purpose. Chiltern Arts will always provide a way for an individual to withdraw consent in all marketing communications. Where we receive a request to stop using data, we will comply unless we have a lawful reason to use the data for legitimate interests or contractual obligation.
- Right to erasure: individuals can request for all data held on them to be deleted. Chiltern Arts data retention policy will ensure data is not held for longer than is reasonably necessary in relation to the purpose it was originally collected. If a request for deletion is made we will comply with the request unless:
  - There is a lawful reason to keep and use the data for legitimate interests or contractual obligation.

- There is a legal requirement to keep the data.

Right to restrict processing: individuals can request that their personal data be 'restricted' – that is, retained and stored but not processed further (e.g. if they have contested the accuracy of any of their data, Chiltern Arts will restrict the data while it is verified).

Though unlikely to apply to the data processed by Chiltern Arts, we will also ensure that rights related to portability and automated decision-making (including profiling) are complied with where appropriate.

Member-to-member contact

We only share members' data with other members with the subject's prior consent.

As a membership organisation Chiltern Arts encourages communication between members.

To facilitate this:

- Members can request the personal contact data of other members in writing via the Data Protection Officer or Membership Secretary. These details will be given, as long as they are for the purposes of contacting the subject (e.g. an email address, not financial or health data) and the subject has consented to their data being shared with other members in this way.

How we get consent

Chiltern Arts will regularly collect data from consenting supporters for marketing purposes. This includes contacting them to promote performances, updating them about Chiltern Arts news, fundraising and other activities.

Any time data is collected for this purpose, we will provide:

- A method for users to show their positive and active consent to receive these communications (e.g. a 'tick box')
- A clear and specific explanation of what the data will be used for (e.g. 'Tick this box if you would like Chiltern Arts to send you email updates with details about our forthcoming events, fundraising activities and opportunities to get involved')

Data collected will only ever be used in the way described and consented to (e.g. we will not use email data in order to market 3rd-party products unless this has been explicitly consented to).

Every marketing communication will contain a method through which a recipient can withdraw their consent (e.g. an 'unsubscribe' link in an email). Opt-out requests such as this will be processed within 14 days.

Cookies on the Chiltern Arts website

A cookie is a small text file that is downloaded onto 'terminal equipment' (e.g. a computer or smartphone) when the user accesses a website. It allows the website to recognise that user's device and store some information about the user's preferences or past actions.

Chiltern Arts uses cookies on our website [www.chilternarts.com] in order to monitor and record their activity. This allows us to improve users' experience of our website by, for example, allowing for a 'logged in' state, and by giving us useful insight into how users as a whole are engaging with the website.

We will implement a pop-up box on www.chilternarts.com that will activate each new time a user visits the website. This will allow them to click to consent (or not) to continuing with cookies enabled, or to ignore the message and continue browsing (i.e. give their implied consent).

It will also include a link to our Privacy Policy, which outlines which specific cookies are used and how cookies can be disabled in the most common browsers.

Regular Data Review

A regular review of all data will take place to establish if Chiltern Arts still has good reason to keep and use the data held at the time of the review.

As a general rule a data review will be held every 2 years and no more than 27 calendar months after the last review. The first review [will take place/took place on 1 April 2018?].

- All reasonable and practical efforts will be made to remove data stored digitally.
  - Priority will be given to any instances where data is stored in active lists (e.g. where it could be used) and to sensitive data.
  - Where deleting the data would mean deleting other data that we have a valid lawful reason to keep (e.g. on old emails) then the data may be retained safely and securely but not used.
